Persistence pays off for road safety in Lilydale.

Having lobbied Tim Pallas, the Minister for Roads and Ports for urgently needed safety improvements to the Warburton Highway-Lily Road intersection, I was pleased to read in the Leader (10/8/10, p15) that the hazardous intersection will benefit from the installation of new warning signs to reduce the risk of accidents by September this year. I was told by residents that there were a number of near misses at the intersection with motorists exceeding the speed limit along the Warburton Highway and approaching drivers from Lily Road trying to complete a left or right hand turn with frightening speed. Persistence does pay off. Thank you to everyone involved in the fight to make this intersection safer.
